House Call

Insulation and Air Sealing Contractors List

NOTE: Rebates offered only for work recommended by Auditors via House Call-Energy Audit.

The following contractors have signed a Participation Agreement with the Center for Energy and Environment (CEE), on behalf of the Conserve and Save Program, to do work according to the highest quality standards, and have agreed for customers in the Conserve and Save program to:

- Have their work checked to ensure they consistently meet high standards
- Complete any work that is found not to meet standards
- Offer a one year warranty to customers

If you call these contractors, be sure to let them know you were referred by the Conserve and Save Program to receive the full benefits of CEE's quality control program.
